REV. JOHN BOYD

Tonight, we welcome our guest preacher and a long-time friend of Acadia and the Manning Chapel. John was a Chapel Assistant in the early days of this chapel.

A native of Hants County, John attended Windsor area schools before going to Acadia University (BA, 1971; MDiv, 1974). He was ordained 45 years ago this month and over the next 41 years served as Minister of Baptist churches in Mahone Bay, Amherst, and First Baptist Church Halifax. Throughout his ministry, John was involved in ecumenical and interfaith organizations, including a term as President of the Atlantic Ecumenical Council. He was also active in regional, national and international Baptist organizations. John retired in 2015 but keeps busy as Webmaster for the Canadian Association for Baptist Freedoms and as secretary of the CABF's Credentials Committee. He enjoys reading, travelling, and solving just about any type of word or number puzzle. John and Debbie have three adult children and several grand-dogs.

Call to Worship: (Hebrews 12:1)

Chaplain: Jesus said: Greater love has no one than this, that a person lay down his life for their friends.

People: God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

National Anthem: O Canada

Chaplain: My faithful people, let us remember in silence before
God all those who died in war and in peace keeping.

Chaplain: They shall grow not old as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning.

People: We will remember them.

Prayers of Thanksgiving and Intercession

The Lord's Prayer: (Unison)

Our Father, which art in heaven, hallowed be Thy Name. Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done in earth and it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the Kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen

The University Prayer: (Unison)

Lord God of all wisdom, we pray for Acadia University, that she may be faithful to the purposes of our Founders, continue to promote the search for truth and knowledge, and be an inspiration to others who follow. May we be a community of scholars sharing this ambition, caring for one another, and loyal to the truth revealed to us as thy disciples. Amen.
